PRESS RELEASE

November 6, 2009

For Immediate Release

SUBJECT:

Modern Machinery adds “Kleemann Crushing & Screening Plants” to its product offering

PRESS RELEASE CONTENT:

Modern Machinery is pleased to announce that we have added Kleemann to our complete line of products for the aggregate, recycle, slag, coal, and green waste industries.

With over a century-long competence in the construction of stationary plants, Kleemann has built a reputation for durable and reliable machines. A member of the Wirtgen Group, Kleemann has become one of the main forces driving the development of tracked mobile crushing and screening plants in both the natural rock and stone industry and in the recycling sector. Crushing and screening plants from Kleemann are characterized by their superior use of technology, innovation, quality and after sales service.
